

BRINGING UP KARI

[Exercises]

Question 1. The enclosure in which Kari lived had a thatched roof that lay on thick tree stumps. Examine the illustration of Kari's pavilion on page 8 and say why it was built that way.

Answer: It was built that way is to make sure that it would not fall in if Kari bumped against the poles as he moved about.

Question 2. Did Kari enjoy his morning bath in the river? Give a reason for your answer.

Answer: Yes, Kari used to enjoy his morning bath in the river. He would lie down on the sand and the author rubbed his back with clean sand for an hour. After that, he would stay in the water for a long time.

Question 3. Finding good twigs for Kari took a long time. Why?

Answer: Finding good twigs for Kari took a long because the author had to climb all varieties of trees to get the most delicate twigs for Kari. If a twig is deformed, an elephant would not even touch it.

Question 4. Why did Kari push his friend into the stream?

Answer: There was another boy who was drowning in the river. Kari alone was not able to take the boy out of the water so Kari pushed his friend into the stream to help him to save that boy.

Question 5. Kari was like a baby. What are the main points of comparison?

Answer: The main points of comparison are:

- i) Good lessons had to be taught to him.
- ii) Manner of eating, sitting, etc. had to be taught.
- iii) He used to steal fruits from the dining-table of the house.

Question 6. Kari helped himself to all the bananas in the house without anyone noticing it. How did he do it?

Answer: He steals the bananas with the help of his long trunk kept on the dining table through the window.

Question 7. Kari learnt the commands to sit and to walk. What were the instructions for each command?

Answer: The word "Dhat" was used to make him sit and the word "Mali" was used to make him walk.

Question 8. What is "the master call"? Why is it the most important signal for an elephant to learn?

Answer: The master call is a strange howling, hissing sound. It sounds as if a snake and a tiger were fighting each other. This noise have to be made in the air. When an elephant listens to the master call, he uproots the trees and makes a passage through the jungle to the house.